Norfolk Young Musician Competition 2022

Promoted by the Michael Badminton Young Musicians Trust

Sunday 16th January 2022

The annual Norfolk Young Musician Competition will take place at the John Innes Centre, Colney on Sunday 16 January 2022 starting at 10 am.

Each competitor is invited to play a 15 minute programme in front of an audience in the John Innes Conference Centre. Pianists will play on a Steinway grand piano.

- Three cash prizes (1st, 2nd and 3rd places)
- Michael Badminton String Prize for the most promising young string player
- Mrs E Sturgeon Piano Prize for the most promising pianist.
- Norfolk and Norwich Chamber Music Prize for the most promising wind player.
- Jane Roberson Prize for Voice £150.

The Norfolk Young Musician 2022 may be offered recitals in various venues.

The competition usually lasts for most of the day with the adjudication at the end. Competitors are encouraged to bring parents and friends to listen and to support each other by hearing other players perform. All participants will be required to be present for the final adjudication. Stage presentation and dress are important to consider. The winners will be required to pose for press photos after the adjudication.

All requirements for entry can be found on the attached entry form. The closing date is Friday 3 December.

Yours sincerely
